

QUICK GUIDE

— to Jackson's —

ROAD BIKING

experience
jackson.com

FALLING WATERS TRAIL

The Falling Waters Trail is for riders looking for a smooth and easy route on asphalt. The park is well maintained so riders can truly take in the scenic trail with very limited interruption from cross paths. Riders can expect a view of Lime Lake through the rural route linking Concord to Jackson.

LENGTH: 10.5 miles

TRAIL LOCATION: The trail is located in Jackson County, Michigan, connecting the Village of Concord to the City of Jackson.

PARKING: Free parking is available at the Concord trailhead, Lime Lake County Park trailhead, and Weatherwax trailhead.

AREA BIKE SHOPS: P & T Fitness & On Two Wheels

NOTABLE NEARBY

- The Cascades is a spectacular 500-foot-tall, man-made waterfall with illuminated lights that are choreographed to music. Check out the events & firework shows here!
- Explore renowned Michigan wines at one of Jackson's wineries. These exceptional wines are the product of well-established vines that have enjoyed years of Michigan's unique climate and soil. Wines produced in Southeast Michigan are treasures waiting to be found.
- Jackson offers a unique opportunity for tourists to hear the stories of Jackson's most notorious criminals, riots, and prison escapes. Experience life behind bars for yourself with The Original Jackson Historic Prison Tours.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. EQUALITY TRAIL

Martin Luther King Jr. Equality Trail (formerly the Inner-City Trail) allows you to explore the historic City of Jackson. The trail is perfect for shorter evening rides, or as the last leg of an all-day adventure on the Falling Waters Trail.

LENGTH: 3.4 miles

TRAIL LOCATION: Weatherwax Road to downtown Jackson, Michigan.

PARKING: Free parking is available at the Weatherwax trailhead.

AREA BIKE SHOPS: P & T Fitness & On Two Wheels

NOTABLE NEARBY

- Enjoy a show in a truly unique atmosphere at the Michigan Theatre. The restored theatre was originally built in 1930 using a Spanish Renaissance style with an ornate polychrome terra-cotta façade, carved walnut furniture, plush carpeting, heavy damask draperies, and stained-glass light fixtures.
- Extend your route to include Under the Oaks City Park. This historical landmark is where anti-slavery men and women came together in 1854 to establish a new political party, the Republican Party.
- Grand River Brewery creates some of the best craft beers, wines, and distilled spirits in the area. The industrial-styled restaurant or patio is the perfect spot to stop for a drink or bite to eat after a refreshing run. You've got to try their Monkey Mouth IPA — 2015's North American IPA of the Year!

517.764.4440

